

CARBERRY GETS DECISION OVER SHEDDO

(Special to The Bulletin.)

Winnipeg, April 28.—Dick Berry of the Winnipeg team, who was the champion of the city tonight in the eight round main event staged under the auspices of the Winnipeg Athletic club. The decision was popular with the fans.

Berry, fighting one of the best fights in his career, drew Warner around the ring, feeling to get in the punch that would count. Warner fought a pretty good fight but his blows had little effect on Berry, most of them being jabbed to the face or ribs.

Berry started out in the first round and hit all the way, knocking Warner into the ropes, only to have him come back into a clinch and cover up. In the second round a blow to the ribs staggered Warner, but he came back strong. Berry landed lefts and rights in Warner's face and body almost at will during the fight, but the blows landed at the end of the evening. Warner's last forward getting him away to time. During the last round the fans looked for a knockout, and Berry landed a hard swinging right hand, which was the deciding blow. The referee, who was holding the fight, saw that the fight was over and called for a count of nine, taking advantage of the count to gain his breath. Carberry was bleeding at the nose in the second round, but came back for more. Neither man seemed to have the punch left after the second round to out in the third round. The third round was a close and hard fought, with the fighting in the sixth and seventh rounds. Carberry's last round was a close and hard fought, with the fighting in the sixth and seventh rounds. Carberry's last round was a close and hard fought, with the fighting in the sixth and seventh rounds.

Carberry's last round was a close and hard fought, with the fighting in the sixth and seventh rounds.

NEW YORK, April 28.—Gena Tunney of New York, American light-heavyweight champion, is expected to fight in the near future.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

MARKET GAINED STRENGTH

New York, April 28.—Stock market prices today registered many material recoveries from the reactions of the week-end, regardless of a 1 per cent. rise for all loans, the highest gain for this accommodation in several weeks.

Prices of 1 to 3 points were made by the better known stocks, among them, steel, oil, food and miscellaneous issues, notably Standard Oil of New Jersey, National Biscuit and American Radiator, advances ranged from 1 to 3 points.

Dealings were comparatively light in the first three hours, but broadened later on as steady absorption of the market, also shipping, independent steel, sugar, textiles and merchandising shares.

Traders seemed to adopt a more conservative attitude on further consideration of the coal strike situation, prospective higher freight rates and the tangled international affairs, as indicated by the course of events at Genoa.

These considerations were swept aside, however, as the list gathered greater momentum and additional railway recovery showed the market a new lease on life. The steel group, where final prices recorded gains of 1 to 3 points, an important factor was retention of dividends by the Bethlehem corporation.

Sugar and affiliated stocks were bought on additional price advances and the favorable quarterly statement of the Cane Products Company stimulated buying of that issue. Investment funds were little better than firm, but secondary issues, particularly New Haven and Minneapolis and St. Louis, were in great demand. Sales amounted to $1,125,000 shares.

Money brokers regarded the higher rate for call loans as a temporary advance and entirely due to transfers of funds to May interest and dividend payments. Time funds were unchanged, but were less freely offered than in recent days.

The British rate was the only exception to the weaker tone of foreign exchanges, holding within a fraction of yesterday's level. The dollar was steady, Italian and Belgian remittances eased four to six points and all the northern and eastern European quotations were lower, the Dutch alone showing firmness.
